

ER-5-1254

22 January 1954

MEMORANDUM FOR: Colonel Edwards

SUBJECT : [REDACTED]

25X1A

1. On 21 January 1954 I discussed subject cases with Mr. Dulles. I explained to him that insofar as I knew CIA had no operational or other interest in granting clearances to these individuals and that the request for clearances was made by the Technical Services Staff so that [REDACTED] could discuss with them the possibility of investing money in the [REDACTED] Company.

2. Mr. Dulles stated that as a matter of policy we should not conduct investigations and grant clearances for such purposes.

3. Would you, therefore, take the necessary action to notify the Technical Services Staff.
